

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure

Benjamin Franklin

Data

- Understanding the data with professional in their field
 - Vital to understanding need
- Pinch point / tipping points
- Economies points
 - Circuit economies – reducing failure demand (Social Impact Bonds / Social Impact Investment Partnerships)
 - e.g. Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service

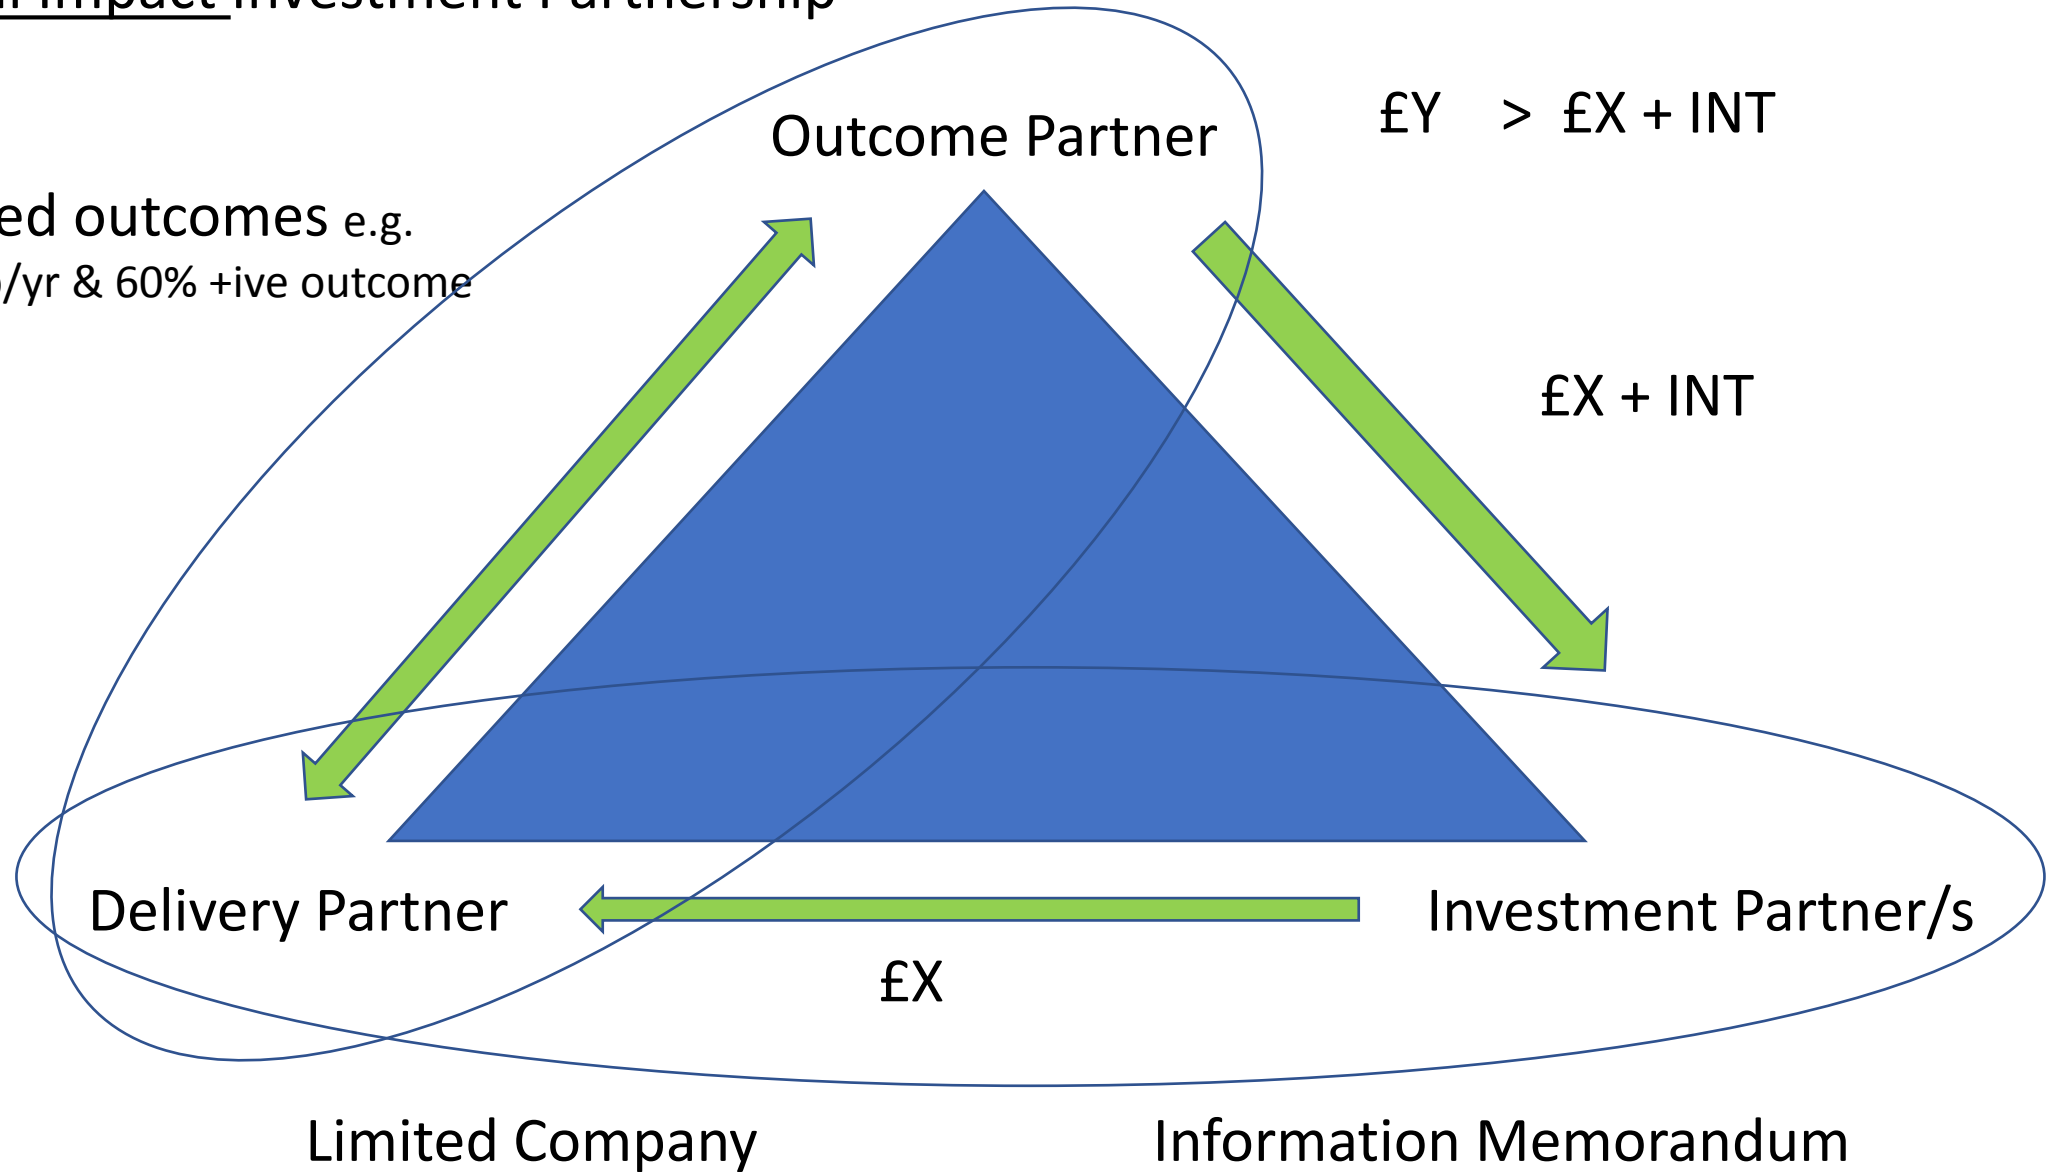

- Good Data  good understanding of need
-  Informed prevention
-  Prediction
-  Good service provision models

ADD TO THAT SOCIAL IMPACT INVESTMENT

Powerful options to enhance / support development of practice
&
Feed back in to Policy

Social Impact Investment Partnership

Agreed outcomes e.g.
100 yp/yr & 60% +ive outcome

THANK YOU FOR LISTENING

Ian Marr
Aberdeen YMCA

01224 643291